

FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY
Retroactive Withdrawals Guidelines

A retroactive withdrawal is withdrawal from all classes from a previous semester or present semester in which the withdrawal deadline has passed. Students have up to one year to complete the request for a retroactive withdrawal.

Approved retroactive withdrawal petitions must meet one of the following criteria: medical, legal, military service, death and university error reasons. There are no exceptions.

A. Medical:

- i. The student has a physical illness in which the student is unable to attend class for a minimum of two weeks as indicated by a physician.
- ii. In order for the petition to be approved, the university medical form must be completed by the treating physician consistent with the above. (Candidate for refund).
- iii. Student must serve as the sole caregiver for an immediate family member who requires around-the-clock care as indicated by a letter from a physician.
- iv. In order for the petition to be approved, the university medical form must be completed by the treating physician consistent with the above. An immediate family member is defined as a parent, sibling, spouse, offspring or grandparent. (Candidate for refund).
- v. Psychological or psychiatric distress as indicated by a letter from a psychologist or a psychiatrist stating that the student's emotional functioning prohibited the student from attending class for at least two weeks.
- vi. In order for the petition to be approved, the university medical form must be completed by the treating physician or psychologist consistent with the above. (Candidate for refund).

Note: Please do not send your medical records to the Registrar's office

B. Legal:

- i. The student was incarcerated or was in a trial for his or her defense for at least a two-week duration.
- ii. The student served on a jury for at least two weeks.
- iii. The student was a victim of a crime in which he or she was directly threatened or harmed and experienced severe distress as indicated by a police officer, psychologist or psychiatrist. (Candidate for refund).
- iv. Sudden change in circumstances as the sole caregiver for an immediate family member who requires around-the-clock care and no other care is available as indicated by legal documents.
- v. An immediate family member is defined as a parent, sibling, spouse, offspring or grandparent.

Retroactive Withdrawals Guidelines

- vi. The student must provide legal documentation for the circumstances upon which the petition is based.

C. Military Service:

Students who serve in any branch of the United States military and are called to active duty may be granted a withdrawal.

D. Death:

Students may withdraw from a semester if the death of an immediate family member occurs during the specific semester in which the withdrawal is requested.

- i. An immediate family member is defined as a parent, sibling, spouse, offspring or grandparent.
- ii. A death certificate and documentation (e.g. funeral program) with evidence of the the family relationship are required.

E. University Error:

A withdrawal may be approved if there is substantial evidence to prove that the university made an error in the registration process.

F. Decision: The Retroactive Withdrawal Committee decision is final.

Procedure:

Students are required to request for a retroactive withdrawal by completing the Retroactive Withdrawal package found at the Registrar website

<http://www.famu.edu/index.cfm?Registrar&Forms>

Students may include a personal letter of explanation (optional) when submitting a completed package.

Notification:

- i. Students will be notified of the outcome of their petition in writing at the email address listed with the Registrar's Office. Students who desire verbal notification or have questions about the outcome of their petition may contact the Registrar's Office at registrardocs@famu.edu
- ii. If the retroactive withdrawal petition is stamped "No action/Pending" this indicates that more information is required before the committee can make a decision. All requested information from the committee must be returned within 90 (ninety) days. If the information is not returned within this time period, the petition may be denied.

Possible Refund:

Students who are interested in applying for a refund are encouraged to complete the "Tuition Refund Request" form located on our Student Financial Services website under forms.
